GOT ONE OF THESE?

If so, it's time to replace it. Do it now while it's still worth something.

These X-Rite devices have long been discontinued and you won't be able to get them serviced much longer. It's time they were replaced with something current, like the new eXact. Plus, you can trade your old one and get a credit for a new one. Take advantage of this promotion while you still can!

Trade-In Rebates are available for upgrading to an eXact handheld until January 31, 2015

You must purchase your new eXact first and then register your trade-in online

You will receive a check back directly from X-Rite after using your new eXact serial number and invoice number to register trade-in within 60 days of purchasing the new unit. You are responsible for registering your own trade-ins at xritetradein.com

If you'd like to speak with someone, we can put you in contact with your regional Color Management Group reseller. You can also download the brochure to read about how the eXact will make you more efficient HERE and see the differences between the available versions HERE. Or, you can purchase yours today HERE!
